NEOLITH SIX.S SLAB COLLECTION

PROUDLY BROUGHT TO YOU BY CDK STONE

responsible elegance at its best

Transforming imagination into functionality, Neolith is the premium fashion stone. Imported directly from Europe, Neolith synergises the utmost design principles with functionality, resulting in a scratch, stain and heat-resistant surface. Made to the highest international standards, Neolith is available in a wide range of styles and textures and is suitable for the most demanding applications.

Neolith's new Six•S Collection showcases natural beauty while paying homage to Neolith's commitment to sustainability. Drawing inspiration from around the world, the Neolith Six•S Collection combines six attributes into six breath-taking styles. Each style represents a unique Six•S attribute and each style replicates a natural aesthetic.

Born in the midst of a world health and economic crisis, Six•S is a collection inspired by the theme of solidarity, resilience and bravery of global society. Therefore, a percentage of the collection sales will be destined to a Covid-19 related charity.

sensory

The new Six•S collection has been specifically designed to provide a multi-sensory experience. This is thanks to the state-of-the-art technology and development of a unique range of special textures and finishes which creates tactile appeal.

strong

A combination of high-strength and ultra-resistance, make Neolith a material suitable for interior and exterior applications, remaining unchanged over time.

sustainable

Neolith is a 100% natural surface, and a "carbon neutral" company that continually invests in eco-friendly production technology, as well as other green innovations.

stylish

All Neolith slabs are a unique combination of style and substance, influenced by evolving global design trends and tastes, offering hyper realistic execution.

sanitary

Good hygiene is a required essential to maintain physical well-being. Neolith offers an ultra-hygienic and easily disinfected surface.
